but please say definitely that you will call him within this week or the next week and do it. Please say that...(Interruptions)...Let him say that...(Interruptions)

SHRI MUFTI MOHAMMAD SAYEED: Sir, I assure the honourable Member that as soon as possible we will be calling the Chief Minister of Maharashtra, discuss with him and settle this...(Interruptions)

SHRI JAGESH DESAI: Sir, it is already agreed on Marathwada and Vidarbha. Konkan can be settled afterwards. So, there is no necessity for calling the Chief Minister again...(Interruptions)..He has already agreed in respect of these two areas. So, without calling him also youcan do it. I would like to know whether he will do it immediately or not...(Interruptions)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question Hour is over.

WRITTEN ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Maharashtra-Karnataka border dispute

*43. SHRI D.B. CHANDER GOWDA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the border dispute between Karnataka and Maharashtra has been resolved;

(b) if so, to what extent;

(c) whether Government propose to implement the recommendations of the Mahajan Commission Report fully; and

(d) if so, by when?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MUFTI MOHAMMAD SAYEED): (a) to (d) The recommendations of the Mahajan Commission did not evoke the necessary measure of acceptability and the differences between the two State Governments concerned in the matter have been persisting. The Government of India have been of the view that this dispute can be resolved only with the willing cooperation of the State Government and towards this end the Central Government will be glad to extend all possible assistance to them.
